
Great Western Railway

Take a cab ride
with GWR

A high-speed train, likely a Class 225, is stopped at a station platform during twilight. The train is dark blue with a yellow front section and has 'GWR' written on it. The platform is lit by streetlights, and the sky is a deep blue. The train's headlights are on, and the platform has a yellow safety line.

GWR

#GWREnterTrainment

Question time

1. What letter is on top of the signal on departure from Bristol Temple Meads?
2. What stations does the service call at?
3. What platform does the service depart from at Bristol Parkway?
4. Where does the service changeover from Diesel to Electric traction?
5. How many tunnels does the service go through on its journey to London Paddington?
6. What platform did the service use at Swindon?
7. How many CCTV monitored level crossings does the service cross on its journey?
8. What stations did the service pass after Swindon?
9. How many TfL trains are in the sidings at Maidenhead?
10. What platform does the service terminate on at Paddington?

Answers

1. F
2. Three – Bristol Temple Meads, Bristol Parkway and London Paddington
3. Platform 3
4. Bristol Parkway
5. Two – Chipping Sodbury and Alderton
6. It didn't use a platform
7. Two – Causeway and Stocks Lane at Steventon
8. 21 – Didcot Parkway, Chislesey, Goring & Streatley, Pangbourne, Tilehurst, Reading, Twyford, Maidenhead, Taplow, Burnham, Slough, Langley, Iver, West Drayton, Hayes & Harlington, Southall, Hanwell, West Ealing, Ealing Broadway, Acton Mainline and London Paddington.
9. Two
10. Platform 1