

Rail improvement work in the Devon area

What's happening:

Track renewals in the south Devon area will affect train services between Exeter St Davids and Plymouth on every weekend in February. (5/6, 12/13, 19/20 and 26/27 February)

What you need to know:

Trains between London Paddington and the south west will only run between London Paddington and Exeter St Davids.

A shuttle train service will run between Plymouth and Penzance as well as between Newton Abbot and Paignton (except 12/13 February, see Page 2 for more details).

Trains between Cardiff Central and the south west will continue to run between Cardiff Central and Taunton with some services extending to/from Exeter St Davids.

Branch lines services between Exeter St Davids and Exmouth will continue to run (except on Sunday 6 February, see Page 2 for more details).

Services to Barnstaple and Okehampton will also continue to run on 5/6 and 12/13 February but will be affected from Saturday 19 to Sunday 27 February. See Page 2 for more details.

Replacement buses will run between:

- Tiverton Parkway – Plymouth (non-stop)
- Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot – Totnes – Ivybridge – Plymouth
- Exeter St Davids – Dawlish – Teignmouth – Newton Abbot
- Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot (all stops)

Other operators:

CrossCountry services will continue to run between Exeter St Davids, Birmingham New Street and the north.

South Western Railway services between Exeter St Davids and Salisbury/London Waterloo will continue to run (except on Sunday 6 February, see Page 2 for more details)

Rail improvement work in the Devon area

Additional rail improvement works during this time:

On Sunday 6 February, buses will also replace trains between Exeter St Davids and Exeter Central. Trains will continue to run between Exeter Central and Exmouth.

On the weekend of 12/13 February, no trains will run between Newton Abbot and Paignton. Tickets will be accepted on Stagecoach bus No.12.

From Saturday 19 to Sunday 27 February, buses will replace trains between Crediton and Barnstaple/Okehampton. Trains will continue to run between Exeter and Crediton.

