

Weekend of 18/19 March 2023

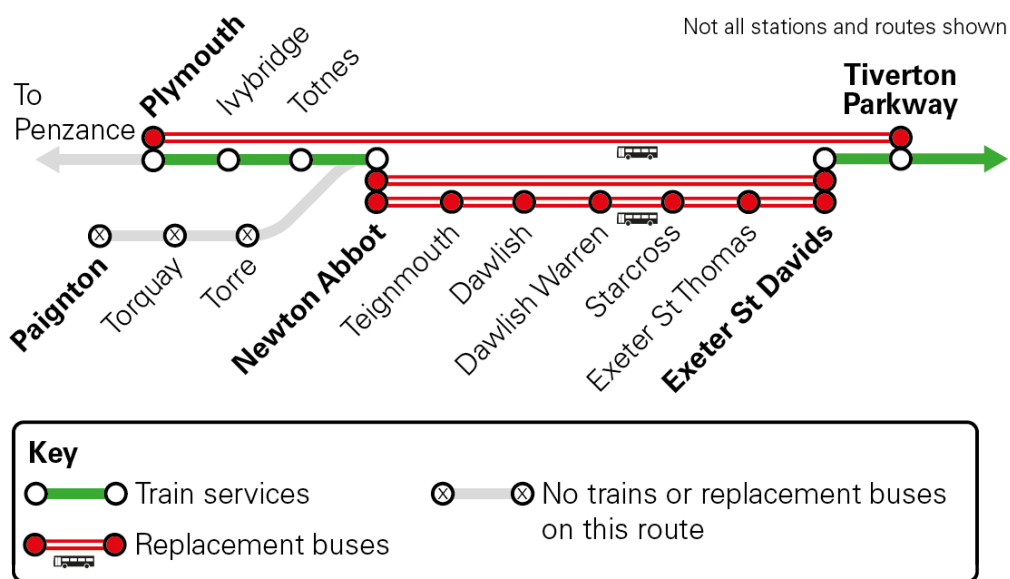

Track renewals in the South Devon area will affect train services between Exeter St Davids, Newton Abbot and Plymouth.

The main closure will be between Exeter St Davids and Newton Abbot, but this will expand to include Paignton and Plymouth on the Sunday.

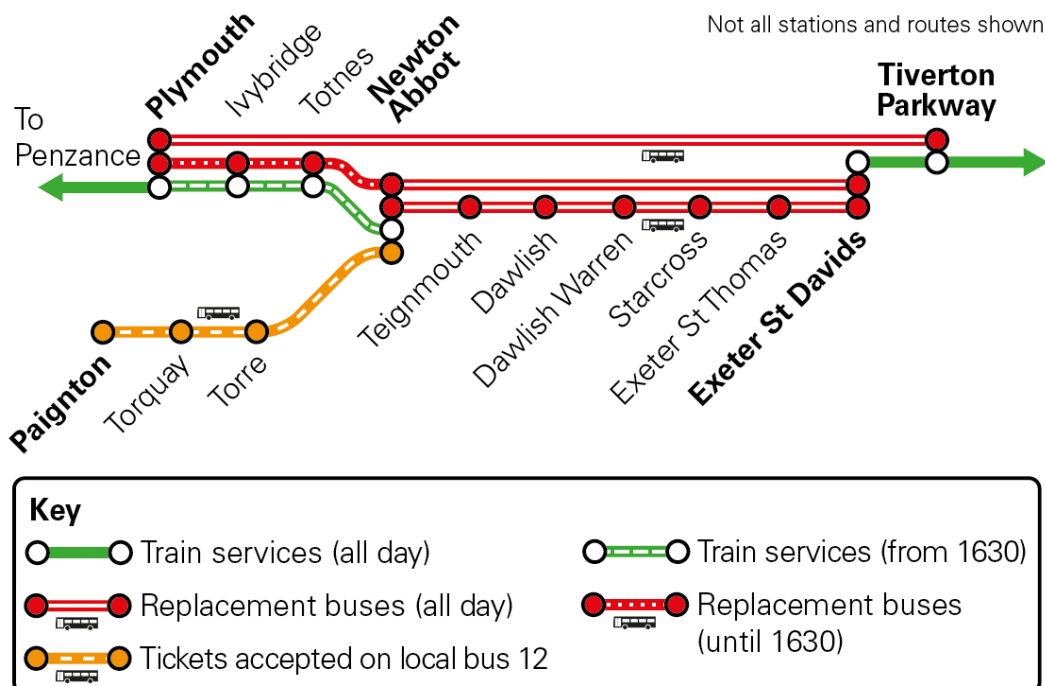

Industrial action on Saturday 18 March will mean a reduced service will be in place on this day.

The maps below show this in more detail:

Saturday 18 March UPDATED

Sunday 19 March

How it affects our trains

Taunton – Exeter St Davids

- Saturday: A reduced train service will run due to industrial action
- Sunday: Stopping trains from Bristol Temple Meads will terminate at Taunton. All other trains will terminate at Exeter St Davids

Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot:

- No trains will run for the full weekend

Newton Abbot – Paignton:

- Saturday: No trains will run due to industrial action
- Sunday: No trains will run. Tickets will be accepted on Stagecoach bus route 12

Newton Abbot – Plymouth:

- Saturday: Trains will run hourly
- Sunday: No trains will run until 1630. After 1630, hourly trains will run

Plymouth – Penzance:

- Saturday: No trains will run due to industrial action
- Sunday: A reduced train service will run

Replacement buses

Route	Frequency	End-to-end journey time
Tiverton Parkway - Plymouth (non-stop)	Hourly	1 hour 20 minutes
Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot (non-stop)	2 buses an hour	40 minutes
Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot (stopping at all stations)	Hourly	1 hour 20 minutes
Exeter St Davids – Newton Abbot – Totnes – Ivybridge – Plymouth (runs on Sunday until 1630 only)	Hourly	2 hours 10 minutes

Important to note

Customers travelling from Plymouth or Cornwall to destinations beyond Exeter should use non-stop buses from Plymouth to Tiverton Parkway.

Newton Abbot to Paignton

Saturday: No trains will run and no ticket acceptance will be in place due to industrial action.

Sunday: Rail tickets will be accepted on Stagecoach local bus number 12 which runs between Newton Abbot and Paignton, stopping near all stations along the route.

Station	Nearest 12 bus stop location
Newton Abbot	Bus stops at the front of the station
Torre	Newton Road bus stops near the turning for St Michael's Road
Torquay	Torbay Road bus stops near the Grand Hotel
Paignton	Paignton Bus station